

Train the Trainer FETAC Level 6

A Certified Programme in Training &
Accelerated Learning Techniques for Learning & Development

OMT Group's Train the Trainer Programme covers all the core elements you will need as a Training Professional but, in addition to achieving a FETAC Qualification, you will also be introduced to the world of Accelerated Learning where you can take People on a journey from merely Knowing and Doing something new, to actually living new values, behaviours and skills.

What is Accelerated Learning?

OMT Group specialise in an Accelerated Learning approach. This is a design and development technique based on the way the human being naturally learns. By acknowledging and adapting to preferred learning styles it unlocks the learning potential usually left 'untapped' by most conventional learning methods.

By understanding that Learning involves the whole mind and body, that it is about creating (not consuming), and takes place on many different levels simultaneously, Programmes can be developed which are not only more interesting and engaging but also significantly more effective and impactful.

With this Programme, you won't just become a Qualified Trainer; you will have opened up a whole new energy and spirit around the art of Learning.

Who should attend?

- Learning & Development Professionals who want to re-energise themselves and increase the potential and value of their Learning Programmes through the use of Accelerated Learning Techniques
- Individuals who are new to the area of Learning and Development and want to build a strong knowledge, understanding and skill around all the core elements of being a Trainer
- Learning & Development Professionals who want to refresh their Training Knowledge and Techniques while achieving a Professional Qualification in Training, also possible with a view to using these credits towards broader HETAC studies in the area of HRM
